Arlington, VA – Broadway stars Victor Garber, Marin Mazzie and Jason Danieleley, and Signature favorite Sherri L. Edelen will salute Angela Lansbury at the Signature Theatre's Sondheim Award Gala on April 12 at the Embassy of Italy. The beloved stage, screen, and television actress will be presented with the company's first Stephen Sondheim Award, established last year in honor of America's most influential contemporary musical theater writer and composer.

Signature's Artistic Director and Co-Founder Eric Schaeffer stated, "It's really wonderful to have these four amazingly talented artists come to the Sondheim Gala to perform in honor of Angela Lansbury, the first lady of Sondheim musicals. Victor, Marin, Jason and Sherri will give her a salute like none other!"

The performers have many connections to Stephen Sondheim. Victor Garber originated two Sondheim roles, the young sailor Anthony in Sweeney Todd and John Wilkes Booth in Assassins. Marin Mazzie created the role of Clara in Passion, then interpreted it for television on PBS's Great Performances. Ms. Mazzie has also performed Beth in Merrily We Roll Along, and the roles of Rapunzel, The Witch, and Cinderella from Into the Woods. For “Live at Carnegie Hall,” she performed and recorded Anyone Can Whistle – the musical that started Ms. Lansbury’s work with Stephen Sondheim. Ms. Mazzie’s husband, Jason Danieley, who won a Helen Hayes Award for his Signature Theatre performance of The Highest Yellow, is considered one of leading tenors on Broadway – with roles in Curtains, Candide, and The Full Monty – and joins his wife and frequent co-performer in saluting Ms. Lansbury. Sherri Edelen, an outstanding Washington-based comic actress, will be coming to the Gala after performing Ms. Lansbury’s all time favorite role this spring, Mrs. Lovett, in Signature’s 20th anniversary production of Sweeney Todd.

The 2010 Sondheim Award Gala is chaired by Juliann and C. Daniel Clemente; Honorary Hosts include actors Catherine Zeta-Jones, Bernadette Peters, and Michael Cerveris, philanthropists Helen Henderson and Ted and Mary Jo Shen, political leaders Italian Ambassador Giulio Terzi, Virginia Senator Jim Webb and Mrs. Webb, and Virginia Congressman James Moran and LuAnn Bennett, as well Stephen Sondheim. The Sondheim Award Gala will benefit Signature Theatre’s artistic, education, and community outreach programs.

To date, Platinum Level Sponsors are Juliann and C. Daniel Clemente, Bonnie and Kenneth Feld, and Ted and Mary Jo Shen. Gold Level Sponsors are A+ Government Solutions, BNA, Susan Gage Caterers, Frank Guzzetta, Maxine Isaacs and James A. Johnson, Wesley C. Pickard and Jeanette Studley, Victor Shargai, Patti and Jerry Sowalsky, Target, and J. Watkins and Bradley Frey.

Angela Lansbury has enjoyed a career without precedent. Her professional life spans more than a half-century during which she flourished, first as a star of motion pictures, then as a five-time Tony Award®-winning Broadway musical star. Two of Ms. Lansbury’s Tonys are for Stephen Sondheim musicals: the role of Mama Rose in the 1974 revival of Gypsy and Mrs. Lovett in Sweeney Todd in 1979. She is currently playing the role of Madame Armfeldt on Broadway in the revival of Sondheim's A Little Night Music, co-starring Catherine Zeta-Jones.

Ms. Lansbury appeared most recently on Broadway as Madame Arcati in the 2009 revival of Noël Coward's Blithe Spirit, for which she received her fifth Tony Award, as well as Drama Desk and Outer Critics Circle Awards; and in 2006 in Terrence McNally's Deuce, for which she was nominated for a Tony Award. She made her Broadway debut in 1957 starring as Bert Lahr's wife in the French farce, Hotel Paradiso.

In 1960, she came back to Broadway as Joan Plowright's mother in the season's most acclaimed drama, A Taste of Honey, by Shelagh Delaney. Her first musical role there was Stephen Sondheim's 1964 Anyone Can Whistle. Ms. Lansbury returned to New York in triumph in 1966 as Mame, for which she won the first of her unprecedented four Tony Awards as Best Actress in a Musical; her second was for the Madwoman of Chaillot in Dear World (1968).

From 1984-1996 she starred as Jessica Fletcher, mystery-writing amateur sleuth, on "Murder, She Wrote," the longest-running detective drama series in the history of television, for which she won four Golden Globe Awards.
